

Policy on Provisional Ratings

Where a rating is prefixed as [Provisional], it indicates that a full rating has been assigned based upon the agency's expectations regarding final documentation or certain steps pending, typically based upon a review of the final draft documentation provided by the issuer. If such final documentation is received or steps pending are executed as expected, the provisional rating will typically be converted to a final rating.

Provisional ratings are not conditional upon receipt of further analytical information. By the time a provisional rating is assigned to a transaction, no change is anticipated to that opinion other than in exceptional circumstances. While provisional ratings typically convert to final ratings within a short time, determined by timing of transaction closure, in the period between assignment of a provisional rating and a final rating, provisional ratings may be raised, lowered or placed on Rating Watch or withdrawn, as with final ratings.

Provisional nature of the ratings are prominently disclosed in all communications at every stage, including the rating letter, rating rationale, rating press release etc. stating the steps/documents pending which the rating assigned is provisional. Subsequently, conversion of provisional rating to the final rating is also disclosed in all communications.

India Ratings may withdraw a provisional rating which is no longer expected to convert to final ratings and are outstanding for 90 days or longer. However, if a provisional rating is expected to convert to final rating, it may not be withdrawn once the 90 day period is over and can be reviewed through a rating committee.

India Ratings policy on Provisional Ratings is in compliance with Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) directive dated May 6, 2015 viz. "Standardising the term, rating symbol, and manner of disclosure with regard to conditional/provisional/in principle ratings assigned by CRAs".

INDIA RATINGS conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of INDIA RATINGS's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. In issuing its ratings INDIA RATINGS must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating was issued or affirmed.
